Brock and Becca are two young children who love to travel. They have been to many different places, but they have never been to New Brunswick. When they hear that their parents are planning a trip to the province, they are very excited. They can't wait to see all the beautiful things that New Brunswick has to offer.

When Brock and Becca arrive in New Brunswick, they are immediately impressed by the stunning scenery. They see rolling hills, lush forests, and sparkling lakes. They also see many friendly people who are happy to welcome them to the province.

Brock and Becca spend their days exploring New Brunswick. They visit the Bay of Fundy, the largest bay in the world. They also visit the Hopewell Rocks, which are unique rock formations that are only visible at low tide. They even go on a whale watching tour and see several humpback whales.

Brock and Becca have a wonderful time in New Brunswick. They learn a lot about the province's history and culture. They also make many new friends. When it is time to go home, they are sad to leave. But they know that they will always cherish the memories of their trip.

Stunning Illustrations

The illustrations in Brock and Becca Travel to New Brunswick are simply stunning. The artist has captured the beauty of the province in all its glory. The colors are vibrant and the details are exquisite. The illustrations are sure to captivate young readers and make them feel like they are actually there.
