Meet Mo O'Hara, a perfectly normal boy with a perfectly normal life. That is, until his pet goldfish, Frankie, dies and comes back to life...as a zombie!

At first, Mo is horrified. But as he gets to know the new and improved Frankie, he realizes that being a zombie goldfish isn't so bad after all. In fact, it's pretty cool. Frankie can now swim through walls, glow in the dark, and even shoot lasers out of his eyes!

But Mo soon learns that having a zombie goldfish comes with its own set of challenges. Frankie is constantly hungry, and his favorite food is...brains! Mo has to figure out how to keep Frankie's hunger in check without letting him eat anyone's brains.

With the help of his friends, Mo embarks on a hilarious and heartwarming adventure to find a way to cure Frankie. Along the way, they learn about the importance of friendship, responsibility, and accepting people for who they are, even if they're undead.

My Big Fat Zombie Goldfish is a laugh-out-loud funny and heartwarming adventure story that's perfect for young readers ages 8-12. With its lovable characters, important lessons, and exciting action, this book is sure to become a favorite.
