Exploring the Trails

The rail trails we feature span a diverse range of terrain, offering something for everyone. From the rolling hills of Sussex County to the flatlands along the Hudson River, each trail promises its own unique charm. Discover the serene beauty of the Delaware River Valley Rail Trail, where you'll pedal past historic towns and picturesque landscapes.

For a more challenging adventure, tackle the dramatic inclines of the Old Mine Road Rail Trail in Harriman State Park. And if you're seeking a leisurely ride, the Hudson River Greenway offers a scenic path along the iconic riverfront, where you can take in stunning views of the New York City skyline.

Historical Treasures and Cultural Delights

Along these rail trails, you'll not only encounter breathtaking scenery but also delve into the rich history and culture of the region. Visit the charming towns of Hackettstown and Dover, once bustling centers of the iron industry. Explore the historic villages of Piermont and Nyack, with their quaint shops and art galleries. And don't miss out on the vibrant cultural scene of Hoboken, home to the renowned Waterfront Museum.
