Everything you need to know about playing cribbage on video call, from the rules to the setup to the strategies.

The Rules of Cribbage

Cribbage is a two-player card game that is played with a standard 52-card deck. The goal of the game is to be the first player to reach 121 points.

The game is played in a series of hands. Each hand, the players are dealt six cards. They then take turns playing cards to a central pile, called the crib. The player who plays the last card to the crib gets to cut the deck and deal the next hand.

After the crib is cut, the players take turns playing cards to the board. The board is made up of four rows of five cards each. The players can play any card to the board, but they must follow suit if possible. If a player cannot follow suit, they can play any card they want.

The first player to play five cards to the board wins the hand. They then score points for the cards in their hand, the cards in the crib, and the cards on the board.

The game continues until one player reaches 121 points. The player who reaches 121 points first wins the game.
